

Christoph Luykx

Public Policy Manager, Europe Global Public Policy INTEL CORPORATION

Christoph Luykx joined Intel in March 2008 and is Intel's Policy Manager for Europe responsible for Security/Privacy and Trade as part of Intel's Legal & Corporate Affairs Group. In this capacity, Mr. Luykx works closely with different business group within Intel, providing advice and support on key issues to Intel's growth and representing the company in various external activities.

Prior to his work for Intel, Mr. Luykx spent 3 years as a US Department of State economic specialist at the United States Mission to the European Union in Brussels, Belgium. Prior to 2005, Mr. Luykx was a staff member at a Belgian Chamber of Commerce and Industry responsible for international trade affairs. He is currently the chair of DIGITALEUROPE's privacy and security working group and is active in various associations.

Mr. Luykx was born in Hasselt, Belgium in 1978. He received his Law degree from the University of Leuven in 2002 and was an affiliated researcher at Leuven's Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT (ICRI). He works from Intel's office in Brussels, Belgium.